

Frequently Asked Questions for Businesses

1. What business services does ARIZONA@WORK Pinal County provide?

- Job Postings on Statewide job board
- Referral of Qualified Job Seekers
- Job Posting in our Resource Center
- Zoom Interviews
- Company Wage Analysis
- Labor Market Information
- Customizable Workforce Development Strategies
- Recruitment and Candidate Prescreening
- National, State, and Local Recruitment
- Job Postings on our Social Media Sites
- Virtual Hiring Events
- Industry Convening Sessions
- Layoff Aversion
- Arizona Career Readiness Credential

2. Does ARIZONA@WORK Pinal County help employers find qualified workers?

Yes. Employers can post their employment opportunities on the azjobconnection.gov. Career planners can refer qualified candidates for these job openings. ARIZONA@WORK Pinal County also provides customized recruitment assistance and hosts in-person and virtual job fairs.

3. Does ARIZONA@WORK Pinal County offer recruitment assistance and job fairs?

Yes. ARIZONA@WORK Pinal County offers recruitment assistance, virtual and in-person hiring events and job fairs. Contact one of our Business Service Consultants for information on business services by calling (520) 509-3555.

4. Does ARIZONA@WORK Pinal County charge businesses for services?

No, all business services are available to employers at no cost.

Frequently Asked Questions for Businesses

5. Does ARIZONA@WORK Pinal County offer any wage reimbursement programs to assist with reducing labor costs during training?

Yes. Several programs are available to assist employers with the cost of training on a reimbursement basis. Contact one of our Business Services Consultants for information on wage-reimbursement programs by calling (520) 509-3555.